

CLA Keys to Success - How WA State SHRM Can Assist Workforce Readiness

You Said Yes... So, Now What?
Important FAQ's For Volunteer Leaders

WASHINGTON STATE SHRM

Best Practices

- Participate in SHRM Workforce Readiness Core Leadership Area volunteer leader conference calls and webcasts.
- Network with the other WA state chapter Workforce Readiness Directors in the quarterly State Workforce Readiness conference calls.
 - A roster of all Volunteer Leaders in Washington State can be found on the Washington State SHRM website at <https://wastatecouncil.shrm.org/wa-documents-and-history>
- Make the initiatives simple customized to your local community.
- Be creative. Think of partnering with local agencies to avoid duplicating efforts.

Helpful Hints and Resources

- Make sure that initiative is relevant for your specific community
- R&D=Ripped Off & Duplicated – There is no need to reinvent the wheel
- Many other additional resources specific to Workforce Readiness in Washington State can be found on the Washington State SHRM website at <https://wastatecouncil.shrm.org/council-and-chapter-resources>
- Frequent the Volunteer Leaders Resource Center (VLRC) and the Workforce Readiness Page on the VLRC

<https://community.shrm.org/vlrc/resources-shrm/viewvlrcarticle?DocumentKey=d49a3da6-84da-45f6-bcf7-d6ba2a4b9500>

Have Questions or Need Additional Information

If ever you have additional questions or not sure who to contact, please email us at wastateshrm@gmail.com and we will work to connect you with the appropriate person.

Thank you again for all you do as Volunteer Leaders!